

For the past two years QTIC have been mapping Indigenous employment activities around Queensland, identifying opportunities for a greater engagement of indigenous people within the tourism industry. Through the Indigenous Employment Champions Network project, funded by the Department of Employment, Economic Development and Innovation, QTIC is committed to improving Indigenous participation in the tourism industry and is taking an active role in reducing barriers to Indigenous employment.

Indigenous Employment Survey 2010

Business Name: _____

Business Type/Sector: _____

Region: _____

Contact Details: _____

1. Do you currently employ Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander staff?

Yes

No (Go to question 4)

2. How many Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander staff do you currently employ?

3. What positions are the Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander employees currently filling?

Length of employment with your organisation?

4. Are you interested in employing Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islanders in the future?

Yes

No

5. Do you have any current vacancies or anticipate vacancies to be available in 2010?

Yes

No (Go to question 7)

6. What positions do you currently have vacant or will have in 2010?

7. Are you interested in being involved in/or supporting activities promoting tourism as a career path for Indigenous people?

Yes

No

8. Are you aware of the range of support (including funding) and resources available to employers of Indigenous staff?

Yes

No (To receive information on this email kim.harrington@qtic.com.au)

Please complete this survey and return to QTIC via fax on 07 3236 4552 or email to info@qtic.com.au.